

The Foundation Builder

You're recovering well — this is the moment to build sustainable habits, not just survive the season.

YOUR TIPS & TRICKS

- 01 Layer in a daily probiotic now — gut health compounds early.
- 02 Protect one non-negotiable stretch of sleep, even 20 minutes, daily.
- 03 Build a simple support list before you need it.
- 04 Keep movement gentle and consistent rather than ambitious.
- 05 Journal weekly — tracking early makes changes easier to spot.
- 06 Revisit this assessment each trimester or postpartum month.

YOUR DAILY MANTRAS

"I am building something extraordinary, one day at a time."

"My body did something miraculous — I honor that."

"I don't have to earn rest; I simply need it."

"Small, consistent care compounds into real strength."

"I am allowed to prioritize myself while caring for others."

"I trust my body's wisdom in this new chapter."

IN GOOD COMPANY

Serena Williams has spoken openly about how seriously she treated postpartum recovery — physically and mentally — before returning to peak form.
