

The Recalibration Phase

Good instincts, inconsistent follow-through. A few structural changes will compound quickly here.

YOUR TIPS & TRICKS

- 01 Add one structural home upgrade this month.
- 02 Build gut health support into your daily routine.
- 03 Bring consistency to movement over occasional intensity.
- 04 Reconnect with a sense of purpose — a project, a class, a goal.
- 05 Get a full check-up if it's been a while.
- 06 Pick one thing here and commit to 30 days before adding the next.

YOUR DAILY MANTRAS

"Small, consistent changes are rebuilding my vitality."

"I am not behind — I am recalibrating."

"My best years are being built now, not behind me."

"I choose progress over perfection, every day."

"I am investing in myself the way I'd invest in someone I love."

"This chapter is mine to write, starting today."

IN GOOD COMPANY

Christie Brinkley has spoken often about strength training and nutrition as the foundation of her vitality well past 60.
